Come Explore at the Aerospace Museum of California's Open Cockpit Day

An interactive opportunity to learn and explore unique aircraft from the past and present

WHAT: The Aerospace Museum of California (AMC) (www.aerospaceca.org) announces Open Cockpit Day on Saturday, October 15 from 9:00am-5:00pm. Admission to the Museum is $5.00 all day and children under the age of 5 are free! The young and the young at heart are invited to explore, climb into or imagine what it would be like to soar through the skies in several of the many aircraft on the ramp. Guests will experience historic planes and displays representing over eight decades of aviation history.

Attendees will also be able to enjoy the free festivities planned next door at the North Highlands Jubilee (<http://www.northhighlandsjubilee.com/>) from 11:00am-3:00pm. Located at Freedom Park, it's a day of family fun with a variety of activities, goodies and community resources for everyone. Bounce houses, clowns, games, great food from local vendors and music! There's something for everybody.

WHEN: Saturday, October 15
9:00am to 5:00pm

WHERE: Aerospace Museum of California
3200 Freedom Park Drive
McClellan, CA 95652

VISUALS:

- Open Cockpit Day – interview and film children of all ages exploring the wonders of the Museum
- Historic planes and displays representing over eight decades of aviation history
- Interview a range of veterans that volunteer their time to educate others about the service and sacrifice of this great nation

About AMC:

The AMC is a non-profit foundation dedicated to inspirational and educational programs, honoring the rich military and aviation history of the greater Sacramento region, and highlighting the impact and innovation of the Museum's many community partners.
